TRAINING DESCRIPTION

Any HR professional would agree that the job description is a fundamental tool omnipresent in each and every HR process. Writing a job description is both an art and a technique. In this workshop, you will learn how to conduct a thorough job analysis in order to write a comprehensive job description focused on the key result areas of the job. You will also realize that organizations pay for jobs not individuals; that is why, as an HR professional you have to use job descriptions to evaluate jobs objectively and determine their relative values to the organization. We will provide you with the principles of job evaluation and guide you in applying the Meirc job evaluation system which is widely used in the Gulf region.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

This course will provide you with the information and guidance to design and define job roles and key accountabilities of each job to support your organisation structure and business goals, and the key objectives of this course are to help you develop the following skills:

- Understand the main components of job analysis and how to establish a framework
- Know how to use job analysis to understand job roles and accountabilities
- Know the numerous different output formats of job analysis (such as role summary, job accountability statement, job descriptions, and job profiles)

- Know the step-by-step guide to developing job descriptions and job profiles
- Develop the skills required to write job descriptions and person specifications
- Understand how to use job families to simplify job analysis
- Know the link of job analysis to job evaluation and grading and performance management
- Know best-practice to communicate the results of job analysis to employees
- Understand how to use job analysis to improve organisational design and development

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

A highly interactive combination of lecture and discussion sessions will be managed to maximize the amount and quality of information, knowledge and experience transfer. The sessions will start by raising the most relevant questions, and motivate everybody finding the right answers. The attendants will also be encouraged to raise more of their own questions and to share developing the right answers using their own analysis and experience.

All attendees receive a course manual as a reference.
